

Souper Bowl V: Benefiting the Soup Kitchen February 10, 4:00-7:00pm at Haley House Bakery Cafe

With handcrafted ceramic bowls, locally sourced soups, and no power outtages, we will be celebrating the fifth annual Souper Bowl next Sunday, February 10! Each ticket, which benefits Haley House's 47-year-old soup kitchen, includes a bowl of your choice, courtesy of MassArt's Clay for Change program. Join us in celebrating our community's local food system, the creativity of chefs and bowl makers, and the Soup Kitchen's mission to providing - more than free food - a space in which transformative relationships are nourished. Become a part of that mission by purchasing a ticket here!

Valentine's Pop-Up Dinner with Whisk Friday, February 15, 7:30pm at 23 Dartmouth Street

Whisk will be popping up for an Aphrodisiac Tasting dinner (wine pairing optional) on Friday, February 15. The pop-up will be staffed by members of Haley House's Transitional Employment Program (TEP), all of whom are transitioning back into the community from incarceration. Whisk is partnering with Haley House to offer advanced culinary skill training to TEP participants. Come see (and taste!) the results of their hard work! Tickets are available here.

TEP a Success Story in The Impact Innovator Founder Danny Cordon interviewed on January 29

"Haley House Bakery Cafe is a reflection of the community. We have individuals that are coming out of incarceration, overcoming addiction, healing from traumatic relationships, looking to start over after long periods of unemployment, and other very real life starting points," said Danny Cordon, founder of Haley House's Transitional Employment Program (TEP).
