

April News and Events

April 3, 2013

Community Tables: Join your neighbors for dinner! Saturdays, 5:00pm at Haley House Bakery Cafe

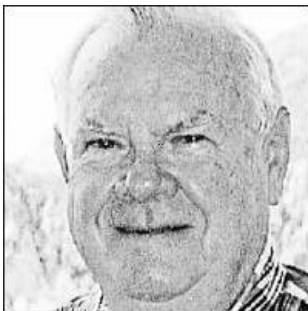

Come join us for our new dinner series at the Bakery Cafe! Community Tables is more than just a meal; it is a place to meet our neighbors, celebrate one another, and find a common ground. Meet neighbors and friends over a delicious, locally-sourced, pay-what-you-can meal. Doors open at 5:00pm and the three-course dinner starts at 5:30pm. Read more about Community Tables here!

Celebrate Spring in the McKinley Garden Saturday, April 4 12:00-4:00pm at the McKinley Garden

Our last garden work day was such a huge success that we are having another one! Come join us this Saturday, April 4, to build raised beds in our urban, school-based community garden. We are also looking for volunteers interested in pairing up with McKinley school teachers to lead garden lessons. If you are interested in teaching, coming to the garden workday, or volunteering in any capacity, please email Ruby, the McKinley garden manager. ### Remembering Joe Dolan, friend of Haley House

Joe Dolan, a long-time friend of Haley House, passed away recently. Joe wandered into Haley House almost 50 years ago, on an exploratory mission to 'find out about poverty' in Boston for his Sodality group. Jesus kept referring to the poor and Joe felt he had no knowledge of poverty. A typical response of this bright, impeccably honest businessman, proud Naval Academy graduate who became "almost" a pacifist. "Dad was hooked," said Joe's son, Tom, in a eulogy at St. Gregory's Church.

"He became an active member of the Haley House community and for over 30 years he helped Haley House feed and bring comfort to those who needed it. He helped cook and serve the meals, clean the kitchen, and shared time and conversation with men who had lost everything. Dad had a spiritual side, and a social conscience, and Haley House provided him with a way of fulfilling his desire to offer selfless, compassionate service to others."
