Dinner & A Movie at Haley House Bakery Cafe

Friday, November 30, 6:00-10:00pm

Join us for Dinner & A Movie on Friday, November 30th at 6:00pm. The Color of Film Collaborative, Inc. and Haley House Bakery Café are proud to present a revamped Dinner & A Movie. This time around, we'll be splitting the evening into two halves.

For the first half, we will screen two short films that tell great stories about food and how it influences our lives. For the second half, we will be asking you to take the mic and share your food stories with us. If you know you want to tell a story (keep it to 5 minutes or so), please email us. We will choose 5-8 people to tell their stories!

Support Andrew Fink's Ironman for Haley House

On November 18th, Andrew will be competing in the Arizona Ironman on behalf of Haley House! Check out his story in detail, excerpted below: This November, I will be heading to Tempe, Arizona to swim 2.4 miles, bike 112 miles and run 26.2 miles. This is a very big and important goal for me. It allows me to challenge my body and mind in ways I have never been challenged. It also allows me to focus my energy on raising money for an incredible cause - Haley House. Please help me support Kathe and the Haley House by donating today.

Garden Teaching Opportunities

Interested in urban agriculture and nutrition education? Haley House is seeking volunteer teachers to lead garden lessons for students at the McKinley School! Previous experience in vegetable gardening, or knowledge of plant growth, plant harvest, soil nutrient value etc. is preferable as lessons will (in most cases) will be planned and taught by the volunteer teacher. McKinley faculty members are particularly
