Sleeping Farm, Time to Plan!

As the farm continues to rest for the season, we are still making moves indoors. This month we are collecting feedback from our 30+ community partners to refine our educational programming, meeting with HHBC staff to co-create a crop plan that integrates with the new menu, drooling over seed catalogs (try it! ## Doors, Carpets, & Gatherings

Most of the time, our affordable housing buildings are happily calm and quiet, providing a safe haven for their residents. However, the past few months, there's been a lot of (good) activity: brand new carpets being installed, restoration of the historic front doors, and holiday gatherings.

On Christmas, residents gathered for a meal of salad, roast duck with stuffing, fried chicken, chicken ravioli with choice of pesto or tomato basil sauce, garlic mashed potatoes, sautéed string beans, roasted carrots with dill and brown sugar, and crunchy Klondike ice cream bars, assorted puff pastries, and cookies for dessert. What a menu!

Rest in Power, Chuck

At the tail end of 2019, beloved community leader Chuck Turner passed away after battling cancer. He will be gratefully remembered for a lifetime of service as a committed community organizer, tireless City Councilor, unflinching advocate, and friend to many social justice organizations, including Haley House.

A memorial service in his honor will be held
