August at Haley House

Pancakes, Cake & Collards for Breakfast!

During ordinary times in the soup kitchen, our team often serves a lot of hearty "lunch" and "dinner" food for breakfast. For the last few Mondays, Mark has switched things up and has been preparing breakfast items such as sausage with fresh sage, home fries, and homemade pancakes. Juan has recently been on a baking kick, and is pictured below with a delicious homemade pumpkin bread with raisins. We give it out with coffee at breakfast and our guests are over the moon for it! To round out the menu, Farmer Anna's been delivering beautiful produce from our Roxbury farm on a regular basis. Most meals also include fresh herbs and nutritious greens like collard greens and kale.

Racial Justice Resources[Donate to the HH
Emergency Fund](#)

The team has adjusted the hours of service:

Breakfast: Sunday-Friday 8-9:30 am

Lunch: Tuesday, Thursday, Sunday 11am-12:30 pm

Clothing room: Tuesday 9:30-11 am

Food Pantry: Thursday 9:30-11 am.

Annual Soup Kitchen Break:

CLOSED August 8-23

Remembering Mimi Jones

Just a few days after the passing of Rep. John Lewis and Rev. C.T. Vivian, our world lost another hero of civil rights and justice, Mimi 'Mamie Nell Ford' Jones of Roxbury at age 73 (July 26).

In 1964, a photo of 17-year-old Mimi being doused with muriatic acid by a manager of a whites-only motel while participating in an action to desegregate the pool went viral, and helped to catalyze the Senate to pass the Civil Rights Act. She was already an active member of the Civil Rights Movement at the time.

8/13, 8/27: Live Drawing Together with MassArt, 6:30-7:30 pm (here)

8/25: Virtual Construction Job Fair presented by MPDC, 11am - 3pm (info)

9/30-10:4: Roxbury International Film

Throughout the rest of her life, Mimi continued to be a courageous advocate for justice and civil rights and a pillar of the Roxbury community. You can hear Mimi speaking about the 1964 pool desegregation action in a 2017 interview with WGBH News here, or last year on Basic Black here. Read more about her life here (Boston.com) and here (Boston Globe).

A celebration of Mimi's life will be held on Friday, August 7 (10 am- 12 pm) at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross in Boston with Father Oscar J. Pratt of St. Katharine Drexel Parish officiating.

In addition to sending weekly baskets of colorful produce to the soup kitchen and Bakery Cafe, we've completed 7 weeks of a no-contact, produce drop-off for seniors in Highland Park. We wash, pack and deliver 30-40 bags of fresh produce per week. The produce bags are paired with grocery gift cards and offers for services such as tech support, online fitness classes, etc. from our amazing partners at Hawthorne Youth & Community Center. We have received calls from our neighborhood seniors expressing their gratitude and joy to cook with this fresh produce. These calls are truly heartwarming and affirming of our decision to launch this program during the pandemic.

This summer, alongside our partners at HYCC, we also welcomed small, staggered cohorts of local teens, and we truly could not do all this good farm work without them! Hearing them share their stories about working on the farm, which is essentially in their backyard. They share how impactful it is that that land wasn't developed into housing, and instead provided them with job opportunities, new skills, the experience of teaching their peers and adults about farming and above all the joy of giving back to the neighborhood that raised them. A HUGE shoutout to our 6 Highland Park teens - you are rockstars!
