HHBC Hours

Thursday - Sunday, 11am - 4pm
A ticket to the virtual event will get you a quart of soup made by a local chef, a handmade, one-of-a-kind, ceramic bowl made by our amazing partners at MassArt CACP and Clay for Change, fresh bread from Iggy's, and a link to join our virtual program in the evening. To make a night of it, you'll also be able to add beer, wine, and of course, our famous cookies! If you don't have plans for Valentine's Day yet, this could be the perfect, COVID-friendly date night!

Special thanks to our 2021 sponsors: the Office of City and Community Relations at UMass Boston and the Office of City and Community Engagement at Northeastern.

This Weekend:
February Poetry

This weekend will be the fourth installment of the monthly poetry series HOME, curated by Boston Poet Laureate Porsha Olayiwola and hosted by Anthony Febo. The featured poet this month is Rachel McKibbens.

Farm by the Numbers

As the snow has settled in at the farm, we have continued our process of reflecting on this past season. The numbers below provide a peek into some of the ways in which our space continued to thrive and support the neighborhood around it in 2020.

64 Garden Beds and Soil Mounds in Production
27 Flower Varieties Grown
637 Bags of Fresh Produce Delivered through Highland Park Senior Program
173 Days from First to Last Harvest
19 Virtual Tours, Panels, and Classes for Roxbury Teens

We welcome your feedback and suggestions as we begin crop planning for 2021 (contact farm@haleyhouse.org).

New Friends and New Art in the Soup Kitchen

We continue to be grateful to bring volunteers safely into the soup kitchen! This time of year, the joy of reconnecting with old friends and meeting new ones is especially welcome.

Summer Internship/Residency Opportunity

We are accepting applications to join the Live-In Community for 3 months this summer.

Summer Residents/Interns become part of the intentional “Live-in” community and help manage the direct services of Haley House (soup kitchen, food pantry, clothing room). Room and board is included but the program is unpaid. For more information or to apply, click here.

Volunteer Update

Currently, our limited shifts are filled through March. If you would like to be on the list to volunteer later this spring and haven’t yet filled out our interest form, please click here.

Special volunteer opportunity: Haley House is seeking a volunteer who speaks Cantonese or Mandarin to help communicate with guests at our weekly Thursday morning food pantry. Email Grace with questions or for more information.
A recent addition to the front windows at 23 Dartmouth is a hand illustrated poster by local artist Arielle Gray (pictured above with Live-In Eunice). The poster is part of a collaborative citywide project by Boston Center for the Arts, inspired by Boston's own Combahee River Collective. It colorfully displays a quote by civil rights activist and feminist writer Audre Lorde: "We have to consciously study how to be tender with each other."

Haley House Turns 55!

February 22nd will mark 55 years of food with purpose and the power of community at Haley House.

We couldn't have made it this far without the support of our community. Please join us in celebrating this milestone all month long!
