Socks, Shirts, Underwear, Oh My!

For many years, with the help of generous neighbors, we've been able to offer clothing to our guests each week. During the pandemic we've seen an even greater need for this program. Lately, we've been especially low on our most requested items: new underwear, undershirts, and socks. We are looking for groups or individuals who can help "sponsor" a month of these critical items, either by raising money or holding a drive. If you are a part of a school group, religious organization, or other community group that is looking to get involved, please reach out to learn more! We also are grateful for other gently used seasonal clothing and other in-kind gifts, click here for more info!

Perennials at McKinley & Summer Farm Showcase

We invite you to take a stroll along Montgomery Street to check out the McKinley Garden (next to the Soup Kitchen) to learn about perennial plants that are growing on the border. You'll find laminated placards that name each plant and include a brief description and fun fact! For example, did you know that the Sweet Violet plant was used in the perfume industry and the leaves can be mixed with salads or made into syrup? See you at the McKinley School Garden soon!

July brought many powerful rainstorms, so each and every moment under clear sky we've been hard at work at the Thornton Street Farm! Our teen farmers just passed the halfway mark of their summer program and are gearing up for our end of season showcase (save the date for Saturday, August 21st - more details to come)! We've been busy hosting our Saturday family events, training our Junior Farmers, organizing tours for local youth groups and of course, harvesting like crazy!

Curry Chicken, Local Lunchbox and More!

It's back! Our popular Curry Chicken Salad is now on the menu at Haley House Bakery Café! With our expanded hours and capacity we are enjoying developing our menu, whether it is to showcase fresh farm ingredients, bring back an old favorite, or highlight a staff member. Make sure you check back often to see how our menu shifts and grows.

We are also excited to announce that Haley House Bakery Café is now part of Local Lunchbox, which allows us to share free meals with students ages 18 and under.
Click here for more information, and please help us spread the word!
